

Reflecting the High Class of Hardwood

Introducing Our New Hardwood Branding

Stoltzfus Forest Products has always focused on three core values when producing fine Appalachian hardwood.

- Quality: Superior hardwood lumber for expert craftsmen.
- Consistency: Consistently premium product for your shop.
- Reliability: Reliable wood source, woods to workshop.

In order to better align our company with the mission of providing premium kiln-dried hardwood lumber to high-end industries, we've worked with a marketing agency to carefully develop a new logo and brand strategy. We think you'll love the result!

- Name: "Stoltzfus Hardwoods" speaks to our relationship with Stoltzfus Forest Products. However, the brand is purposefully distinct from SFP.

- Logo: The monogram's design has a wealth of meanings.

The abstract "S" and the noticeable "H" form an infinity symbol. This implies the long-lasting, ongoing relationships we create with our contractors as well as the longevity of kiln-dried lumber.

The clean geometry and curve speak to the high-end lifestyle our wood supports.

The curve appears to bend between the "H" just like wood is bent in the fine woodworking of local craftsmen.

Nothing has changed in the way Stoltzfus does business or in the quality of hardwood we produce. Rather than resulting in changes to our company, this branding change simply springs from the growth that has happened in our company over the last few years.

Thank you for partnering with Stoltzfus Hardwoods!
